

In Field Cervical Spinal Assessment Quiz

1. The bones of the skull are important to know in describing injury pattern. Name the four “helmet” bones?

---

---

---

---

2. The Mandible is the lower jaw bone? True or False

3. What artery runs within the temporal and parietal bones?

---

4. Should a patient that has consumed six beers and fallen from the bar stool be immobilized? _____

5. What is a distracting injury?

---

---

6. What subjective Neurological deficits require immobilization even if resolved?

---

---

7. Where should you palpate when accessing for spine tenderness?

---

---

8. What steps are involved in the unassisted neck motion if all other criteria are satisfied?

---

---

---

9. If a patient with risk factors refuses to be immobilized what should you do?

---

10. After completing Spinal assessment Protocol do I need to attach my algorithm/documentation to my run sheet? _____

Complete and return to Tish Arwine before utilizing protocol

